Chapman Library

The Chapman Library forms part of the essential units in the Christian Service University College that offers Academic enhancement of the student-learner and Faculty works.

The Library was named after the late Mr. William Henry Chapman, the first Principal of Christian Service College, now Christian Service University College. Six months before the admission of students in October, 1974, the World Evangelization for Christ, (WEC) Mission donated some books to the college which served as the nucleus of the library.
