CSUC Support Kumasi Central Prison and Kumasi Children's Home to Mitigate the Impact of Coronavirus Pandemic

Christian Service University College, Kumasi (CSUC), on Friday, June 12, 2020, donated food items to the Kumasi Central Prison and the Kumasi Children's Home to support the upkeep of the inmates to manage the impact of the novel coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic on them. The food items valued at GH¢4,000.00 included bags of rice, beans, maize, gari, sugar, oranges, cooking oil, baby-formula products and significant quantities of customized face masks.

The President indicated that the benevolent act was in line with the Godly mandate to support the poor and needy in times like this, whereby the Covid-19 pandemic has ravaged the world to compound the limitation of basic needs for human survival. Presenting the items, he indicated that "as a Christian Institution, CSUC deems it central to be able to present these items out of its endowments to institutions that are in critical need to benefit their cause." He further affirmed the belief that in this era of global pandemic, such gestures attract generational blessings to the giver.

CSUC SRC Electoral Commission goes Digital in Manifesto Reading amidst Covid-19 Pandemic

The novel covid-19 pandemic which needs no introduction has led to shocks in every sector of the economy, with the education sector not an exception. In most tertiary institutions in Ghana, one immediate concern is how the current situation has affected the conduct of 2020/2021 academic year SRC elections.

However, the Prince-led administration of the Christian Service University College SRC has brought an innovation to this year's elections to address this concern.

The Students' Representative Council (SRC), President, Prince Agyemang Duah on June 1, 2020 submitted a proposal outlining a new electoral calendar for the conduct of the SRC elections to Management of the institution which was approved by the President of the University College, Prof. Sam K. Afrane.

Students' Share Experience on the Use of Zoom App during Closure of Schools

Ghana's efforts to fight the Coronavirus pandemic involved various mitigating measures by the government which included the closure of educational institutions. This affected public and private schools nationwide, from basic through second cycle schools to the tertiary educational institutions from April 2, 2020.

Upon the directive, a number of educational institutions including the Christian Service University College (CSUC) took to the exploration of online tuition to further academic work. The University College adopted the use of Zoom application as a virtual platform to further teaching and learning till the end of the semester and that has been fairly fruitful. The move was also alternated with the use of other existing e-learning platforms of the University College, i.e. CSUC Moodle platform to enhance teaching and learning.
