

|END:IF|

1/6

CSUC Chapman Library Adopts E-learning Approaches

Against the backdrop that 'today's library services give a blend of information resources and literature assistance achieved through the exploration of emerging technologies to satisfy its patrons,' CSUC Chapman Library has adopted a multi virtual learning approaches to lead information service delivery that advances quality teaching, learning and research activities. According to the Librarian, Mr. Emmanuel Laryea, the initiative forms part of a continuous effort "to offer best of library services from information provision to information literacy training seminars, research and data software training programmes."

READ MORE

Essential Support Services at CSUC

Featuring Essential Support Services at CSUC

Christian Service University College is devoted to excellence in teaching, learning and research and to developing leaders in many disciplines who make a difference globally. The totality of developing these global leaders is contingent on other essential support services beyond academics. At CSUC, the Centre for Research and Business Development (CRBD), the Guidance and Counselling unit and the University Clinic have all been established over the years to support entrepreneurship, socio-spiritual and psycho-medical needs of its publics which prioritizes students. READ MORE

Achievers' Summit: Poverty Eradication Needs Mindset-Shift

The Christian Service University College (CSUC) Students' Representative Council, in collaboration with its Local NUGS/PUSAG Secretariat has held its 3rd edition of Achievers Summit under the theme: "Business leadership role to eradicate poverty in the 21st Century". The summit which brought together business and leadership coaches from different sectors of the economy to suggest some innovative ways to alleviate poverty was designed to provide students with essential knowledge and skills for the modern day entrepreneur.

READ MORE

CSUC Increases Faculty with 6 Appointments

Professor Seth Appiah Opoku,
Senior Lecturer
Department of Planning and Development

Dr. Emmanuel Opoku Ware,
Senior Lecturer,
Department of Accounting and Finance

Dr. Emmanuel J.K. Adu,
Head of Department/Senior Lecturer
Department of Physician Assistantship

Dr. Henry Osei Owusu,
Lecturer,
Department of Physician Assistantship

Mrs. Nelly Dorborson,
Lecturer,
Department of Communication

Mr. Clancy Atta Poku,
Lecturer,
Department of Communication

READ MORE

CSUC Congratulates Dr. Larbie

The Council, President and Management of the Christian Service University College, Kumasi congratulates Dr. Christopher Larbie on his nomination as Affiliate of the African Academy of Sciences (AAS; 6th cohort 2021 – 2025) among 40 young scientists from all parts of the continent after a competitive and rigorous selection process of members who have excelled in their various fields of expertise. The Affiliate programme will support the development of African early and mid-career scientists into world-class research leaders who will contribute to the Academy's vision of transforming lives through sciences. READ MORE

Scholarship Student Wins CSUC Pageantry

Miss Asakia Hanaan Hawawu, a level 100, Communication student has beaten nine competitors to win the 2021 Face of CSUC Pageantry as part of activities that marked the SRC Week celebrations. She took home a cash prize of 1,500 cedis, a 36 inch digital television, appreciable packs of voltic mineral water, assorted cooking ingredients and the crown. She also gets recognition for her exceptional presentation for the 'Most Popular' category.. READ MORE

Semester Theme - “Launch Out into the Deep”

Christian Service University College as a centre for Higher learning aims at 'promoting knowledge for the training of men and women in Christian values and principles, academic and professional excellence for the transformation of society'. In this vein, the institution, since its establishment has sandwiched its training with the teachings of Christ in its day to day endeavours under the office of the Chaplaincy. Such activities and programmes include organizing weekly staff fellowship and church service, and most importantly, introducing semester-based bible themes that aid both students and staff to embark on their daily mandates. In accordance with that, the theme for the second semester of the 2020/2021 academic year is based on Jesus' calling of the first disciples to follow him, titled, Launch Out into the Deep (Luke 5:1-5).

READ MORE

Childlessness Inspiration

The Christian Minister must be equipped to deal with the challenges faced by members of their congregations including childlessness. According to the World Health Organisation (WHO) in 2018, about 1 in every 4 couples had difficulty in getting pregnant; this showed an increase from 1 in every 5 couples in 2006. Clearly, the rate of infertility has been on the ascendency. Proverbs 13:12 states: Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a longing fulfilled is a tree of life. READ MORE

