CSU, Beyond 50 years – Vice Chancellor's Statement

Dear Staff, Students and Friends,

Since the year is still young, I wish all of you all Happy and a blessed year full of hope and fruitfulness in all your endeavours.

As you know, Christian Service University, now Chartered, stands at the threshold of a pivotal transition towards new opportunities and growth. We are lacing our boots to embark on a new journey of hope, enthusiasm and determination to lift up the institution to higher heights to the glory of God.

With this consciousness, we urge the staff to be alert and more committed, put in greater efforts, positive attitude, team spirit and sacrifice to strategically manage our affairs as a fully-fledged University.

Furthermore, we admonish them to embrace innovation, self-sacrifice and renewed dedication driven by the theme for this Semester, 'Going the Extra Mile', inspired by Matthew 5:41. Together, we will move forward with a shared vision to shape, develop and transform the university for Excellence.
