UC (Unknown Cash) is PUBG Mobile's premium currency used for outfits, weapon skins, the Royale Pass, and crates. While PUBG Mobile is less generous than some games, there are still solid free UC methods available in 2026.

■ How to Get Free UC — All Methods

1. Google Opinion Rewards (Android — Best Method)

Complete short surveys via Google Opinion Rewards to earn Google Play credit. Average: $5–15/month = 60–180 UC equivalent. Easy and consistent.

2. Microsoft Rewards

Earn Microsoft Reward points via Bing searches, quizzes, and daily tasks. Redeem for Google Play or Xbox gift cards, then convert to UC.

3. In-Game Events & Missions

PUBG Mobile runs limited-time events that award UC, outfits, and crates. Check the Events tab daily and complete milestone missions.

4. Clan Events & Royale Pass Missions

Active clan members earn Silver and RP points that unlock free reward tiers — including occasional UC bonuses.

5. Third-Party Earn Apps (With Caution)

Apps like Swagbucks, Mistplay (Android), and AppStation reward points redeemable for gift cards. Vet carefully — use only well-reviewed platforms.

6. Creator Program

PUBG Mobile's Content Creator Program rewards selected creators with UC and exclusive items. Apply if you have an active gaming channel.

■ UC Scams to Avoid

■ MYTH: Free UC generators are real

FALSE — PUBG Mobile's servers cannot be accessed by third parties. All UC generators steal account data.

■ MYTH: Cheap UC from resellers is safe

FALSE — These use stolen payment methods and result in bans.

■ Monthly UC Earning Breakdown

Android user (Google Rewards + events)

Google Rewards: ~60–180 UC equivalent. Events: ~30–60 UC worth. Total: ~90–240 UC/month — enough for a crate or outfit over 2 months.

Power user (all methods)

Google Rewards + Microsoft Rewards + Earn apps = 300–500 UC/month equivalent. Enough for the Royale Pass every quarter.

■ Frequently Asked Questions

Is Google Opinion Rewards available everywhere?

It's available in most countries but survey frequency varies. US, UK, and EU users receive the most surveys.

Can iOS users earn free UC?

Options are more limited on iOS. Focus on in-game events and Microsoft Rewards via the Bing browser.

■ Conclusion

Free UC in PUBG Mobile is more limited than other games, but achievable through Google Opinion Rewards and in-game events. Combine all methods consistently and you'll accumulate enough for periodic Royale Pass purchases or cosmetics.
